

URLs for high frequency word lists (Available June 2021)

Commonest Words,

<https://web.archive.org/web/20050214194905/http://alt-usage-english.org/excerpts/fxcommon.html>

Dolch Basic Word List, <http://www.english-zone.com/reading/dolch.html>

First 100 High Frequency Words,

<http://www.highfrequencywords.org/hfw100fp.pdf>

Fry's First 100 Words,

<http://www.uniqueteachingresources.com/support-files/fryfirst100set.pdf>

Most common words in English,

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Most_common_words_in_English

Oxford Wordlist,

<http://www.oxfordwordlist.com/pages/search.asp?page=1>

Rank Word, <http://www.world-english.org/english500.htm>

The 500 Most Commonly Used Words in the English Language,

<http://www.world-english.org/english500.htm> (Uses spoken as well as written language.)

The First 100 Most Commonly Used English Words (DuBois),

<https://www.pinterest.com.au/pin/232568768229566876/>

Magic 100 Words, (These are commonly used in schools, but it is increasingly hard to find a list of them online as <https://www.magicwords.com.au/> has copyrighted them.)

Plus a helpful article that I have just discovered that rearranges lists into a logical order for teaching:

Reorganising high-frequency word lists,

<https://www.spelfabet.com.au/2015/08/reorganising-high-frequency-word-lists/>